¹Tuition rates for Chicago and Urbana-Champaign reflect rates assessed for 12 or more semester credit hours. Springfield students are assessed tuition based on a per credit hour charge. In AY 2002 the per credit hour rates were $99.50 for undergraduates and $112.00 for graduates. AY 2003 rates will increase to $109.50 and $123.25, respectively. Springfield tuition rates reflect 30 annual credit hours for undergraduates and 24 for graduates. Mandatory fee rates for all three campuses exclude refundable fees.

²Engineering students pay an additional $400.

³The transportation fee is only assessed to full-time students in all programs except for Dentistry and Medicine.

⁴Rates include disability insurance for first and second year Medical students of $70.20 in AY 2002; all other Medical students paid $87.76. In AY 2003, the rates include a disability insurance rate of $58 assessed to all students.

⁵Resident Hall rate for double occupancy with a 14 meal plan.

⁶Springfield student enrolled in the Capital Scholars program are assessed an additional $300 instructional fee.

⁷Rates shown are for students under age 35; students age 35 to 64 were assessed $436.

⁸Rates listed are for the new Lincoln Residence Hall with a meal plan.

⁹Students in engineering, chemistry and life sciences curricula are assessed an additional $576. Students in architecture, art, and music are assessed an additional $200 at the lower division undergraduate level and $400 at the upper division undergraduate and graduate student levels.

¹⁰Students enrolled in Law graduate programs pay the same tuition rate as students enrolled in the Juris Doctor program.
